

The Casino at the Radisson had them dice rollin' rollin' rollin'!

The exciting "Roll the Dice" Campaign from The Casino at the Radisson held their grand finale on Saturday night, July 1 when six lucky raffle winners got to try their luck and see if they could roll the big numbers for big winnings. For two months, The Casino pulled the names of three individuals from the raffle bin and they could try their luck to win ten times the roll of the giant red dice. As they tumbled to the bottom of the stairs, winners had the chance to take home anywhere from $10 to $120 depending on their luck.

For the last roll of the dice, the six fortunate individuals whose names were drawn were keeping their fingers crossed that they would toss double sixes, giving them a total of $1200, but sadly for them, not this time. Prize winnings ranged from $200 to $700 and Whitney McGuire of Orange County, New York, who won $500, declared it was a great way to end her ten days in Aruba, before boarding the plane back home the next morning. She did admit she was already entertaining a few ideas of how she would spend it, on what exactly, she wasn't quite sure, but she was certain "it would be fun!"

"Roll the Dice" is only one of the many intriguing events hosted by the Casino at the Radisson, which sports the largest poker room on the island and no limit Texas Hold 'em tournaments every Friday night.

The six lucky winners may not usually play Craps, but on Saturday night they were more than ready to "Roll the Dice!"
